"Hello! My name is Justin Duran and I attended Anytown in 2007 and was one of the first students to attend the Teen Summit. These programs sharpened my sense of integrity and passion for social reform. I was not sure what to expect when I went into it, but like other bright individuals that were attending my year we all thought we knew how the world worked and what social justice meant but there was so much more for us to learn.

I really had to check my privilege and learn to grow my understanding of what it meant to be a better leader and ally to those around me. Attending Anytown gave me the ability to find my voice to stand
