"My name is [REDACTED] (he/him/him) and I attended Camp Anytown as a Counselor or Site Coordinator from 2004 to 2016, with the exception of 2005. I currently live in Columbus, Ohio with my husband, [REDACTED] I am the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Anytown still had a major impact on my life and who I am today. I started my coming out journey at the end of 2001 while I was still in high school and it continued when I went off to college at the Ohio Northern University where I helped bring back the gay/straight alliance called Open Doors. Then a couple years into college I started attending Anytown as a counselor. Throughout the years I told my coming out story in the heterosexism module to hundreds of delegates. I also had the honor to hear and be a part of many other's coming out journeys as well. I can still feel some of the emotion that was shared during that module as I type. I am so proud to be a part of the queer community. Anytown is also where I learned about privilege and my responsibility as a cis, white, able bodied, middle class, male which I am still learning, and growing as a result, today. It is where I confronted my biases and challenged my beliefs. Plus, Anytown really gave me the tools and
